17481

The Senate met at 10 o'clock a.m., and was called to order by Hon. HERBERT S. WALTERS, a Senator from the State of Tennessee.

The Chaplain, Rev. Frederick Brown Harris, D.D., offered the following prayer:

Eternal God, who hast set in man's heart the impulse to rear altars of prayer and temples of praise: Thou hast placed us in a world of beauty and wonder. In spite of all the evils dealing with shackles and chains that stalk the earth, we thank Thee for human kindness, for hope that shines undimmed, for faith that is dauntless, and for all the qualities of high personality that cannot be bought.

In the preservation, anywhere in the world, of these virtues, which is our high calling, grant us the supreme satisfaction that we are on Thy side, O God of justice and honor and freedom.

As we face all that rampant evil can do to thwart Thy beneficent purpose for all Thy children, strengthen our arm with the ancient assurance that though a host encamp against us, our hearts shall not fear; though war should rise against us, even then will we be confident.

Through all that we do or say here, use us, we pray Thee, as ambassadors of good will, so that at the end of the day, without stumbling or stain, we may deserve the benediction of Thy "Well done."

In the Redeemer's name we ask it. Amen.
